A Video Essay

The Fog 2024

I used to wonder why I hated the fall
Initially, I thought it was the cold weather Giving me a cold or
The rain drenching me as I step outside my door.

But I have come to the realisation, that I don't hate the fall
I hate uncertainty,
I hate knowing that paths that I used to know could disappear
In a fog so dense I can feel it when I ball my fist.

You could say that the way stays the same
That only my view is shrouded
But that is not the truth,

I go left instead of right,
Up instead of down
Backwards instead of forwards
Until I am back where I started

Damn the fear
Damn the uncertainty
And most of all
Damn the fog

Wo bist du? Warum sagst du es mir nicht? Lass mich bitte nicht allein.

Ich sehne mich nach dir. Ich vermisse dich. Ver-misst du mich auch? Wieso? Komm, sag schon!
Was siehst du? Was siehst du nicht? Hörst du mich endlich?

Was bin ich, wenn du nicht mehr hier bist?
Komm zurück zu mir.

I want to wash my hair today

Sometimes, I struggle to just stand up.

Performance with an Audioexcerpt

Is there any reason for it?
That the heart struggles with it's own need of happiness
Perhaps we all strive for greatness, for perfection, completion
But there is no completion, perfection or greatness for the flawed
Perhaps seeing your suffering come to life by your hands
Is that the cure everyone is looking for
To be seen of a fleeting moment,
To have a mirror in someone else's eyes
